

CEA IS WORKING FOR YOU!

KEEPING YOU SAFE

CEA advocates for safe teaching and learning environments in all Connecticut Public schools.

STRENGTHENING YOUR MOU

CEA's UniServ Reps are working with district leaders on MOUs to protect you, your rights, your working conditions, and your future.

LEGISLATIVE VICTORIES

CEA members, leaders, and staff successfully lobbied and won huge victories at the legislature. A ban on dual teaching, half hour uninterrupted lunch, more mental health professionals in our schools, funding for HVAC improvements and so much more. Read all the legislative victories at cea.org/cea-legislative-achievements.

TEVAL FLEXIBILITY

CEA successfully fought for significant flexibility in teacher evaluations. More changes are being discussed, and teacher evaluation requirements will be updated over the next few months. Go to cea.org/certification for more information.

EXPLAINING YOUR RIGHTS

CEA's legal team offers guidance on everything from school safety to accommodations, sick leave, and other important issues regarding your rights. Learn more at cea.org/covid-19-what-are-my-rights.

IMPROVING YOUR PRACTICE

CEA offers a variety of webinars on issues that matter most to you. Choose from topics such as engaging students, technology and distance learning, equity, designing and assessing lessons, and more. Check out the Professional Learning Academy offerings at cea.org/professional-development.

NEWS AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

CEA's revamped website makes it easier to get the news and tools you need to understand your rights, stay safe, and teach effectively. Visit cea.org for members-only access, using your CEA membership ID number.
