

Hello CEA Members,

Below you will find several lessons and resources categorized by grade level that you can use in honor of Black Lives Matter at School- Week of Action, Black History Month, and anytime throughout the school year. In addition, there are also resources for Art and Music.

Thank you CEA Members for your support,

~Nicole Campbell: CEA Ethnic & Minority Affairs Commission Member & East Hartford Educator

Black Lives Matter at School- Week of Action Lessons & Resources:

Early Childhood Resources
Early Childhood & Elementary - Lessons and Resources from: https://www.dcareeducators4socialjustice.org/
BLM at School- Early Childhood

Elementary Resources
Early Childhood & Elementary - Lessons and Resources from: https://www.dcareeducators4socialjustice.org/
BLM at School- Elementary

Middle School Resources
Middle and High School - Lessons and Resources from: https://www.dcareeducators4socialjustice.org/
BLM at School- Middle School

High School Resources

Middle and High School- Lessons and Resources from:
<https://www.dcareaeducators4socialjustice.org/>

BLM at School- High School

Art and Music Resources

BLM at School-Elementary & Middle School Art

BLM at School- High School Art

BLM at School- Music: Liberation Drum Circles Folder (download folder to access resources)

Additional Racial Justice, Black Lives Matter, and Black History Resources

Nearpod

Consider searching the Nearpod Library for the following topics:

Black History, Racial Justice, Black Lives Matter,
Historically Black Colleges and Universities, HBCU

Newsela:

Black Students Matter- Resources for anti-racist teaching and instruction