

MAY 17 IS TAX DAY.

Don't Forget to Deduct Your PPE Costs.

With the tax filing deadline around the corner, be sure to deduct your eligible educator expenses, including costs for PPE.

Thanks to a federal coronavirus economic relief package, teachers will be able to apply the cost of PPE and other supplies to prevent the spread of COVID-19 in their classrooms toward the $250 educator expense deduction on their federal taxes. The deduction is retroactive to March 12, 2020.
