VALUE FOR YOUR LIFE

YOUR VOICE RIGHTS SALARY UNION BENEFITS WORKING CONDITIONS

CEA IS YOUR VOICE. Together, we advocate for public education, your rights, your safety, and the resources you need in and out of the classroom.

As a CEA member, you are part of a strong union that fights for your salary, benefits, and working conditions, negotiates your contracts, and provides legal services when you need them.

CEA works for you, your students, and your profession. CEA is on the front lines to protect teachers and students against threats that would hurt public education and the teaching profession.

“WHILE YOU ARE FOCUSED ON YOUR STUDENTS, KNOW THAT WE ARE FOCUSED ON YOU—ADDRESSING YOUR NEEDS AND PROTECTING YOUR RIGHTS.”

KATE DIAS, CEA PRESIDENT

MOUNTING THREATS FACING TEACHERS

Across the country and right here in Connecticut, public school educators are effecting the kind of real change that happens only when teachers stand together with their union—united and with a collective voice. Educator advocacy and union solidarity have established safer classrooms, elevated teacher priorities, and secured key and lasting legislative victories.

Our successes and collective strength as a union have drawn the attention of corporate interests that see us as a threat to their profit margins and their influence. These well-funded, anti-union, anti-public education groups want to weaken our union by attacking our right to teach, our profession, our curriculum, and our union membership. They want to take away our basic rights and freedoms by trying to divide us with lies and disinformation about our union and all that we stand for.

CEA is your union, your voice, and your protection against attacks on collective bargaining, your salary, your benefits, your pension, and your future. CEA is always ready to defend educators against any new threats or challenges—but we can't do it alone. By standing together with CEA, we stay union strong and have a powerful collective voice that can't be ignored.

Together, we can chart a new course forward and ensure that our students have what they need to succeed—and you have the freedom, good salaries and working conditions, and the resources and safe teaching environments you need to help students succeed.

That means collaborating, advocating, and being full members of CEA to support our mission and vision for the future—for our students and our profession.

We succeed when we stand together.

CEA MEMBERSHIP

YOUR SALARY. YOUR BENEFITS. YOUR CLASSROOM.

Every day, CEA is working to improve the teaching profession. As a CEA member, you have access to critical tools and resources to improve your classroom, your career, and your future. CEA advocates for teachers by

- Negotiating contracts that let you earn a good salary
- Securing your benefits, including health coverage, and improving your working conditions
- Protecting your teaching certification
- Helping you navigate the pension system for a secure retirement
- Providing virtual and in-person professional training and workshops on topics that matter to you
- Developing educational policies rooted in the classroom
- Speaking up for teachers in the media to provide perspective and demand respect
- Conducting research and providing information on important education issues

“I’VE BEEN TEACHING FOR 34 YEARS, BUT I’VE BENEFITED FROM CEA MEMBERSHIP SINCE THE DAY I WAS BORN, BECAUSE BOTH MY PARENTS WERE CONNECTICUT TEACHERS AND PROUD CEA MEMBERS.”

JEANINE LABROSSE,
AVON TEACHER

AS A MEMBER,
YOU HAVE THE POWER OF THREE:

1. National Education Association (NEA)

NEA advocates in Washington, D.C., with a national agenda that puts traditional public schools and students at the forefront and highlights teachers as professionals deserving respect. NEA lobbies policymakers to invest in classroom resources, teacher professional development, and social and community supports that are essential to student learning.

2. Connecticut Education Association (CEA)

Your statewide voice. As a part of CEA, public school teachers effectively challenge bureaucracies, speak up for sound education policies, and make a real difference for their students. Stronger together, CEA members have strengthened their profession, public education, school safety, teacher pensions, and much more.

3. Your Local Education Association (LEA)

Your LEA is the immediate contact for support and collaboration with your colleagues. LEAs share a commitment to maintaining and improving teacher salaries and benefits, promoting excellent working conditions for teachers and great learning conditions for students, and engaging the community to secure necessary resources for local public schools.

CEA LEGAL RESOURCES

Available to you when and if you need them

As a teacher, you hope to never find yourself in need of legal protection—but if you do, CEA is there to help. In employment-related disputes and complaints, CEA provides members with free legal representation to protect against unfair claims.

CEA members receive free legal representation for

- Workers' compensation
- DCF investigations
- Tenured teacher terminations
- Certification issues and revocations
- Unemployment denial hearings
- Unfair labor practices

Meet CEA's Legal Team – clockwise from top, Rebecca Mitchell, Melanie Kolek, and Adrienne DeLucca.

TEACHERS AND THE LAW

CEA's legal team provides free workshops for CEA members. The workshops examine the rights and responsibilities of teachers regarding a variety of legal issues, including DCF and state mandatory reporting laws, DCF investigations, Weingarten meetings, physical assaults on teachers, FOI, and other related matters.

Get the information you need by attending a free Teachers and the Law workshop. Visit cea.org/professional-development.

MONEY AND RETIREMENT

YOUR FUTURE. YOUR MONEY. YOUR PENSION.
YOUR RETIREMENT.

CEA is fighting to ensure a secure retirement for every teacher.

As an educator, you dedicate your life to public education, and the state has an obligation to provide you with the support you need to retire with dignity. Teachers do not participate in Social Security through their teaching positions, so your teacher retirement benefits are your primary source of retirement security, and CEA is committed to protecting them by

- Ensuring the long-term solvency, stability, and benefit structure of the Teachers' Retirement System
- Requiring the state to fulfill its obligation to fund the Teachers' Retirement System
- Advocating for appropriate funding for the Retired Teachers' Health Insurance Fund

Understanding and planning your retirement

It's never too early to start planning for your retirement. CEA offers member-only retirement workshops that explain the State Teachers' Retirement System and the steps you should take to set up a smooth retirement in the future. Topics include

- Retirement eligibility and benefit calculations
- Purchasing additional service credit
- Social Security issues
- Retiree health insurance
- Disability benefits

Retirement workshops are free for CEA members. For more information, visit cea.org/retirement-information.

PROFESSIONAL LEARNING ACADEMY

YOUR
YOUR FUTURE.
RESOURCES FOR YOUR
DEVELOPMENT.

CEA's Professional Learning Academy offers a wealth of professional development opportunities, aligned with Connecticut's professional learning standards, to improve teaching practice and enhance student learning.

Through the CEA Professional Learning Academy, members can attend online and in-person workshops, conferences, and trainings developed by experienced educators, administrators, and experts in law and special education.

CEA offers workshops and seminars on dozens of topics, including

- Pensions
- Classroom management
- Social-emotional learning
- Improving your evaluation rating
- Preventing and responding to student assaults
- Teachers' legal rights and responsibilities
- Social networking safety
- Unconscious bias
- Creating a teacher evaluation system that actually works
- And more!

Visit cea.org/professional-development for a complete list of online and in-person offerings, which are continually updated to include new strategies and address evolving needs.

GET INVOLVED WITH A CEA COMMITTEE OR COMMISSION

Members' involvement and input are vitally important to the daily activities of CEA. As a member of a CEA commission or committee, you can share your ideas, work with your colleagues from across the state, and help shape the association for years to come. Below is a listing of CEA commissions and committees you can join. If you are interested in serving, visit cea.org/commissions-and-committees.

STANDING COMMISSIONS

Commission for Instruction and Professional Development Examines educational and professional development issues and develops policies, activities, and materials to assist CEA members.

Ethnically Diverse Educators' Commission Promotes ethnically diverse participation in all areas of CEA by mentoring, providing training, and encouraging member advocacy.

Human and Civil Rights Commission Proposes policies and activities that advance equity and social justice in Connecticut public schools and within CEA.

Legislative Commission Helps develop CEA's legislative agenda based on a review of CEA's issues, positions, and priorities that would improve the quality of education in Connecticut, and submits the agenda to the CEA Board of Directors.

Member Benefits Commission Reviews, endorses, and monitors CEA's Member Benefits Program including insurance and member-only discounts.

Public Relations Commission Works with the Communications Department to develop public relations programs, offers input to the CEA Advisor editor, and receives and judges award entries to CEA's awards programs.

Retirement Commission Monitors the State Teachers' Retirement System, the State Treasurer's Investment Advisory Council, and legislation concerning retirement issues.

GENERAL COMMITTEES

Constitution Revision Committee Reviews the constitution and bylaws and submits proposed changes to the CEA Board of Directors.

Elections Committee Reviews and enforces all CEA election procedures and policies, including the certification of candidates.

Finance Committee Reviews all financial matters relating to CEA's operation, including policies and annual budget development.

Membership Training Conference Committee Plans, develops, and coordinates events, programs, and leadership training activities for CEA members (e.g., Summer Experience, Early Career Educator Conference).

Representative Assembly Planning Committee Plans and coordinates all activities relating to the CEA and NEA Representative Assemblies.

EQUITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Inequities in our school districts have been further exposed and exacerbated over the past few years, highlighting the need for CEA and its members to continue advocating to ensure diversity, equity, and inclusion in our public schools. We need to provide more assistance and funding, not less, if our students are to have the social-emotional support they need, access to technology, and fact-based learning.

Together, we must also have difficult and necessary conversations about racial injustice and inequities and make meaningful changes that benefit our students and their families. We must address accusations and misinformation about what and how we teach and stand together to protect teachers' ability to discuss gender, sexuality, race, and racism and, most importantly, to be able to teach our students the truth.

We understand how critical it is to speak out and speak up for our students, our profession, and public education. But we can't do it alone. We must all stand up for what is right and work together to ensure that every school provides the resources to meet the needs of every student.

"CEA AND ITS MEMBERS MUST WORK TOGETHER AND CONTINUE TO PUSH FOR REFORMS AND CHANGES TO ENSURE JUSTICE FOR ALL. THAT INCLUDES STANDING UP FOR WHAT IS RIGHT AND ENSURING EQUITY IN EDUCATION FOR ALL STUDENTS."

DONALD WILLIAMS, CEA EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

WHEN WE WORK TOGETHER,

CEA: STRONGER TOGETHER

One of the greatest things about CEA, our profession, and our union is our combined power to create positive change. As education professionals, we improve both our professional status and the quality of public education when we unite and advocate collectively.

As CEA members, our voice is louder, stronger, and more powerful.

While teachers in states with weakened unions have struggled for better working conditions, CEA—with our strength in numbers—has maintained high standards that boost our students, our profession, and our members. To maintain this strength, we need you—and every teacher—to be active and engaged.

WE CAN ACHIEVE GREAT THINGS.

MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

As a CEA member, you are part of a strong union that works hard to protect many benefits that we cannot take for granted, including:

- Some of the highest teacher salaries in the nation
- Pensions to support teachers in retirement
- Substantial healthcare and other benefits
- Guaranteed, half-hour, uninterrupted lunch
- No dual teaching
- Personal and sick days
- Guaranteed equivalent position after taking maternity or medical leave
- Additional pay for additional responsibilities, including coaching and extracurricular activities
- Class sizes usually under 30 students
- Students taught by certified, highly educated teachers
- Prep periods
- Free professional development provided by districts
